IF MUSIC BE THE FOOD OF LOVE...

MAKE THE FITZWILLIAM HOTEL BELFAST YOUR FIRST CHOICE FOR A ROMANTIC FIRST NIGHT

9 July 2009: The Fitzwilliam Hotel Belfast has introduced a romantic new first night package for newlyweds.

The new Music, Food, Love package includes one night's accommodation in a deluxe room, a chilled bottle of champagne, homemade Fitzwilliam cookie hearts – lovingly crafted by the hotel's own pastry chef, a CD of love songs, which can be played on the music systems that are installed in every room, breakfast in bed, and late check-out for a blissfully relaxing start to married life.

The CD Real Love is a compilation of modern and classic love songs, featuring a variety of artists such as Adele, James Morrison, Gwen Stefani, Eva Cassidy and the Jackson 5.

The Fitzwilliam Hotel Belfast is a new design-led hotel in the heart of the city. Newlyweds can relax and unwind in super stylish comfortable rooms with giant beds and views across the city to the hills beyond. Afternoon teas are served in the impressive lobby, cocktails are available in the cool and quirky bar, and dinner is best enjoyed at the hotel's restaurant Menu by Kevin Thornton, which is overseen by the Michelin-starred chef.

The hotel is an ideal first night destination for those getting married at City Hall and other locations in and around Belfast, as well as those using Belfast as a gateway to the counties of Northern Ireland for a UK honeymoon.

The Music, Food, Love package is available from £215. To book, please telephone The Fitzwilliam Hotel Belfast on 02890 442 080, quoting 'First Night'.
